

Regent Village Conference Center in Providenciales
Meeting Business with Pleasure
By Tim Cotroneo

Regent Village Conference Center is a meeting site combining luxury with convenience

The best meetings showcase a dynamic business topic, a compelling speaker, or an incentive that will motivate your audience. What if your next meeting was located on Grace Bay Beach in Turks and Caicos, voted the number one beach in the world by Trip Advisor?

The Regent Village Conference Center recently opened to rave reviews in Providenciales, Turks and Caicos' most inhabited island. With seating for up to 60 people, this high-tech conference and meeting center is located mere steps from Grace Bay Beach. This is the ultimate destination for those planning a conference that mixes business with pleasure.

Surrounded by Caribbean-style elegance, The Regent Village Conference Center includes audiovisual and teleconferencing services, as well as catering. This is a meeting destination where the stresses of home can be diverted while concentrating on the business task at hand. Your meeting will be positioned amidst palm trees and a beach that will take your breath away.

Accommodations on Grace Bay Beach

The only thing standing between your meeting and Grace Bay Beach is a hotel that projects a special island retreat kind of feeling. The Regent Grand Resort is a one-of-a-kind brand of luxury and service. Guests staying at one of The Regent Grand's 17 oceanfront suites will find more than just a spacious master bedroom and bath. Each suite includes a full kitchen, dining room and living area. Think Turks with perks.

Guests staying at the nearby Regent Grand can expect an island retreat experience

The Regent Grand is an intimate boutique property stretching across 300-feet of Grace Bay Beach. Choose from a one, two, or three bedroom suite. The Regent Grand entrance shares a walkway with The Regent Village Conference Center and Regent Village shopping. The hotel is also home to a fitness center, swimming pool, spa, and tennis court, all within a few paces of your meeting site.

Island Dining

Providenciales is developing quite a reputation throughout the Caribbean for its wide variety of restaurant options. Many of these restaurants feature ocean views. The Regent Village Conference Center's central location means easy access to the dozens of restaurant choices found in "Provo." Your meeting representative or hotel concierge can make dinner reservations prior to or during your stay.

For those wishing to remain close to their meeting site, The Vix is located directly below the second-story conference area. In addition to offering indoor and alfresco dining, The Vix provides room and poolside service for guests staying at The Regent Grand and their neighboring sister property, The Villa Renaissance. The Vix is a great spot for socializing or a convenient place for a drink after shopping.

A meeting in Turks and Caicos will have you relishing Grace Bay Beach

Snorkeling, Scuba, and Golf

The Turks and Caicos Islands are known for their miles of coral reef. The area's calm waters have long been a haven for scuba and snorkeling enthusiasts. Island excursions abound for those choosing to explore the depths of the Caribbean's most beautiful turquoise water.

Provo Golf Club is Turks and Caicos' only golf course. Ranked as one of the Top 10 courses in the Caribbean, Provo is a serene golf environment comprised of palm trees, beautiful flowers, and a bounty of exotic bird life. Provo Golf Club is located just a mile from The Regent Village Conference Center. Guest staying at The Regent Grand and Villa Renaissance can expect special green fee rates, too.
